Monday, January 7, 2013

- Instruction begins.
- Registration deadline for new and returning students. After this date new and returning students will be assessed a $50 late registration fee.
- Fee payment deadline for graduate students.
- Graduate students who still have a balance due must pay or defer this balance by 4 p.m., to avoid a $50 late payment fee. Students can view their BARC account balances by logging into MyBARC at my.ucsb.edu. Graduate students who are not paid will not be allowed to continue with registration until fee payment is made.
- Deadline for continuing, nonresident students to apply for reclassification as California residents.
- Confirmation/updates of your addresses should be processed through GOLD. If you are employed by the university you must also update your address separately with your employing department.

Friday, January 11

- Last day for all students to drop courses without a $3 fee per drop transaction.
- Last day for all students to add courses without a course approval code.
- Late registration ends for all students. Lapse in status as a student in the university may occur unless fees and all other financial obligations have been paid, registration has been completed, and blocks on registration (if any) have been cleared. Enrollment will not be accepted after this date.
